

Benchtop Electric BBQ Grill

Boasting up to 2400W of powerful heating, the Morphy Richards Electric BBQ Grill is great for cooking family meals or entertaining. The two textured plates offer different cooking options and can be easily removed for cleaning. Each plate is controlled by its own temperature control, so one or both plates can be in use at the same time. The anti-splatter baffle plate is easily clipped onto the plates to reduce messy food and oil splashes and the removable drip tray easily catches excess oil for healthier cooking results.

- LED dial indicator lights
- Baffle surrounds the cooking plates reducing messy splashes
- Removable drip tray for easy cleaning
- Easy to clean non-stick coating plates

A portable, compact indoor BBQ ideal for every home, apartment and caravan
